

"The first ulcer, located at the gastric incisura, appears to have been recently bleeding but has just stopped with some coagulated blood on its surface... Despite aggressive irrigation, I am unable to wash it off. Let us use other means to visualize what is beneath... As far as the second ulcer, located at the gastric fundus, it appears to have a clean base with no evidence of recent bleeding."