

Macroscopic examination:

Multiple fragments of brown and cream tissue measuring 17 x 4 x 3 mm. All taken.

Microscopic examination:

Microscopy reveals a circumscribed moderately cellular tumour composed of medium sized cells with prominent cytoplasmic vacuolations. The tumour matrix also appears vacuolated. Tumour cells show vesicular chromatin and single nucleoli. The tumour shows no high-grade histological features.